Dear [REDACTED]

Official Information Request: SSC Reference: 2018-0198

Thank you for your Official Information Act (OIA) request, dated 10 December 2018, for the following information:

- "All advice provided, discussed or direction received, which includes the industrial and employment considerations or implications of the Tomorrow's Schools review and proposal(s);
- Any briefings, Cabinet papers or regulatory impact statements, which include the industrial and employment considerations or implications of the Tomorrow's Schools review and proposal(s);
- All file notes, consultation documents, meeting notes, emails and memos that include the industrial and employment considerations or implications of the Tomorrow's Schools review and proposal(s); and
- Any other relevant documents".

In response to your request, the State Services Commission (SSC) has not been asked to provide, or proactively provided, any advice in the industrial and employment considerations of the Tomorrow's Schools review. Therefore, your request is refused under section 18 (e) of the Official Information Act, as the document alleged to contain the information requested does not exist.

If you wish to discuss this decision with us, please feel free to contact Ministerial.Services@ssc.govt.nz.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.

Please note that we intend to publish this letter (with your personal details removed) on the State Services Commission's website.

Yours sincerely
